The Call to Carmel

“The call to Carmel, a call to seek God’s will in the ordinary circumstances of everyday life, roots Lay Carmelites in a love of those with whom they live and work, in the search for God’s presence in all circumstances, and in solidarity with God’s people everywhere.”
Provincial Atatutes 1.1.1

Lay Carmelites (Third Order Secular of the Order of Carmelites) are Roman Catholic men and women who “live in the footsteps of Jesus.”

Carmelite friars, nuns, and laity share this 800-year-old tradition of contemplative prayer, community, and service. It is a path to holiness embraced by St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Mary Magdalen de’Pazzi, Blessed Titus Brandsma, and many others.

Lay Carmelites meet monthly for a community meeting that includes Liturgy of the Hours, Lectio Divina, fellowship, and Carmelite spirituality related study topics,

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to the apostles after his resurrection and bestows upon them the power to forgive sins.

Pentecost Sunday
May 28, 2023

“When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house where they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.”

Before He ascended, Jesus instructed the apostles to wait for the Spirit to come. The Pentecost event is that moment. Perhaps the disciples waited and wondered about what He really meant. Now we know.

Three signs accompanied this moment – wind, fire, noise. More importantly, the effect His Spirit produced, as they were transformed. They began speaking and carrying out the mandate to go, preach, teach and baptize, yes, to evangelize.

In our parish community today, it is the same Spirit who unites us in prayer, teaches and transforms us, and in a few minutes will send us to do the same thing. Where would we be if that transformation had not taken place? Who do we know waiting to be brought back to the faith, to strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ? How will they know about Pentecost today if we do not do our part?
